

General congatec Information

1. Our customers which are mainly working in the field of industrial automation, medical and comparable industries have a high demand on customization, stability and long-term availability of the products of congatec AG. We focus on the requirements of our customers to make and keep them delighted on our products and services.
2. With respect to the customization we strive to meet customer's exception, to increase customer value and establish a sustainable and successful relationship. Our portfolio is deemed to cover customer's needs now and in future to be a reliable partner in the aspect of technology, quality and service. The time to market is highest priority by meeting the needed maturity and reliability of the products
3. Within congatec we established a culture of trust and encourage everybody within the organization to be commuted to quality. We work according standardized processes covering our standard topics to achieve results effective and with high efficiency. Our employees are competent, engaged and empowered willing to lifetime learning and improvement of all relevant business aspects and personal growth.
4. congatec AG lays the focus on improvement for all relevant elements within our organization - constantly and continuously.
5. We consider for our daily work, mid and long term activities the risks and opportunities to reduce the impact or avoid negative effects.
6. We simplify the use of embedded technology.